*Domaine du Montillet - Dignobles Montez
St Joseph ☆ Condrieu ☆ Côte-Rôtie*

Since the sixteenth century, the area of Montillet belongs to the family of Villard whose most famous representative is Louis Hector, Duc de Villard, Marshal of France Louis XIV (1653-1734).

Patiently, gradually, the ancestors of Stéphane Montez, winemakers, mariners, coopers, animated by the love of the Rhone and the work of the Vine, bought the parcel by parcel land area.

A deed of 1741 shows Michel master carpenter on the Rhone and cooper "ancestor Stéphane Montez, buy a vineyard Montillet. His descendants, after the Revolution continue their acquisitions.

Today Stéphane Montez succeeded his father Antoine, who has sent all its know-how. Stéphane Montez worked for two years in different vineyards in the world, England, Australia, California and South Africa. His international experience allows him today to improve the technical area and home to face certain difficulties in climate.

This adventure abroad said Stéphane made me aware of caratère our unique terroir, this privilege brings naturally to my wine a nice balance.

Thus the Mount plant, make wine, raise and sell their wines on 23 hectares and three designations.
